

Cities:

A Time for Design with Carol Coletta

Wednesday, November 8

6 to 8 pm

Grace Street Theater, 934 West Grace Street

Free and open to the public.

Introduction by VCU President Eugene Trani

Reception follows in the lobby of the Pollak Building, 325 North Harrison Street.

Carol Coletta is president of CEOs for Cities in Chicago and host of the nationally syndicated public radio show Smart City. In conjunction with Time for Design, an exhibition now on view at the Visual Arts Center of Richmond, Coletta's introductory talk will showcase design initiatives that have impacted redevelopment programs in other American cities. She will also moderate a panel discussion focusing on the role of design in Richmond's own redevelopment. Panelists include Rachel Flynn, Director, Department of Community Development, City of Richmond; David Fisk, Executive Director, Richmond Symphony; and Donna Dunay, Professor, School of Architecture + Design, Virginia Tech.

Sponsored by the Departments of Fashion, Interior, and Graphic Design, VCUarts and VCU Office of the President.

---

Time for Design through December 10
at the Visual Arts Center of Richmond, 1812 West Main Street,
804 353 0094
www.visarts.org